For each accommodation you are requesting, explain why the accommodation is necessary and how it alleviates the impact of your disability or disabilities in the context of taking the bar examination.

IV. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Requests for test accommodations must be supported by the following documentation from third parties, which you must provide with your completed Form 1: Applicant Request for Test Accommodations. Review the General Instructions for Requesting Test Accommodations for a detailed explanation of the supporting documentation you should submit.

Medical Documentation

Submit supporting medical documentation from a qualified professional who conducted an individualized assessment and who gave the diagnosis which forms the basis for the request for test accommodations. If you are requesting accommodations based upon more than one disability, you should supply medical documentation to support each disability.

Verification of Accommodations History

Provide verifying documentation of your accommodations history, if any. Submit a Form 7: Certification of Accommodations History completed by each educational institution or testing agency (hereinafter “entity”) from which you requested accommodations in the past, whether granted or denied. Alternatively, you may provide other proof of your accommodations history, such as a copy of the letter(s) you received from the entity notifying you of the specific accommodations granted or denied. The proof should identify the time frame (e.g., third year of law school) and the nature of the disability (e.g., AD/HD) for which any accommodations were granted or denied. If you received accommodations as a result of an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) or a 504 Plan, it is recommended, though not required, that you provide copies of all IEPs or 504 Plans.

Academic Transcripts

Attach copies of your undergraduate and law school transcripts and your LSAC Academic Summary Report. Transcripts or report cards from elementary, middle, junior high, and high school, while not required, are helpful and may be requested by the Florida Board of Bar Examiners in some cases.

V. APPLICANT CHECKLIST

Review this checklist carefully and checkmark the appropriate lines to indicate the documents you are submitting to request accommodations for the Florida Bar Examination. Submit this completed checklist with your request. Review carefully the General Instructions for Requesting Test Accommodations, particularly the section “Steps for Submitting a Complete Request.”
