SECTIONS A & B

(to be completed by all applicants)

The Bar Application is continuing in nature. You must give correctly and fully the information requested in each item or in subsequent requests for information up until the date of the submission to the Oath of Attorney in Florida. During completion of this application, click the "instructions" link beside each item heading for additional information about completing that item. If there is inadequate space following any item, include your responses on an addendum, numbering each response according to the Item number, and attach it to the back of this application. Reference the addendum under the item in the application with which the addendum is associated. Do not insert addenda between the pages of the application.

14a. Financial Obligations

The Board asks questions relating to financial matters to ensure that an obligation was not fraudulently incurred and that the payment of any delinquent obligation was not fraudulently postponed. The Board must also determine whether applicants with serious financial difficulties present a threat to the public. The Board does not necessarily require that you be current with all of your creditors. Debt alone does not preclude admission to the Bar in Florida.

Within the past 5 years, have you been delinquent by more than 90 days in the payment of any tax, credit obligation, judgment, or other indebtedness? Information regarding student loan creditors should be included under item 14.b. If yes, provide the information requested below for each delinquent debt, and provide copies of any financial affidavits or statements that you filed during any court proceedings. Your explanation should include the circumstances under which the reported debt was incurred, the circumstances leading to the delinquencies, and the circumstances that prevent you from repaying the reported debt now, or if not paid, that prevent you from bringing it to a current status.

In answering questions 19-23, please refer to sections 943.0585(4) and 943.059(4), Florida Statutes, which specify that expunged or sealed criminal records shall be disclosed to the Board when the subject of the record is a candidate for admission to the bar. You are warned that no statute, court order or legal proceeding withholding adjudication, expunging the information required herein from any record, sealing the records which contained the information required herein, dismissing, vacating, or setting aside any arrest, accusation or conviction, or purporting to authorize any person to deny the existence of such matters shall excuse less than full disclosure, IRRESPECTIVE OF ANY ADVICE FROM ANY SOURCE (INCLUDING LEGAL COUNSEL) THAT SUCH INFORMATION NEED NOT BE DISCLOSED. If your records have been sealed or expunged, take the appropriate steps to have them unsealed and released directly to the Board. It is not necessary to list any incident under more than one question.

In addition, in answering questions 19-23, you are advised to review your law school application and any other state bar applications you may have completed to ensure you have disclosed all relevant and required information.

In your entire life, have you ever been arrested, detained or restrained, taken into custody or accused formally or informally of a felony, whether or not the charge was later reduced to a misdemeanor or other lesser charge? If yes, provide the information requested below and include a complete explanation of the circumstances leading to the arrest and the subsequent action taken by the authorities.

25. Substance Use and Mental Health

The Board of Bar Examiners, as part of its responsibility to protect the public, must assess whether an applicant manifests any mental health or substance use issue that impaired or could impair the applicant's ability to meet the essential eligibility requirements for the practice of law.

The Board supports applicants seeking mental health or substance use treatment, and views effective treatment by a licensed professional as enhancing the applicant's ability to meet the essential eligibility requirements to practice law.

Seeking counseling to assist with stress or anxiety will not adversely affect the outcome of a Florida Bar Application. The Board does not request that applicants disclose such counseling.

Within the past 5 years, have you been treated for, or experienced a recurrence of, schizophrenia or any other psychotic disorder, a bipolar disorder, or major depressive disorder, that has impaired or could impair your ability to practice law?

If your answer to Item 25. is "yes," please: (i) identify each condition for which you received treatment or had a recurrence; (ii) state the beginning and end dates of any treatment (or state "present" if no end date); (iii) state the name and address of each professional who treated you; and (iv) identify any medication that was prescribed for you during treatment. Please direct each treating professional to provide any information or records that the Board may request regarding treatment, which includes, without limitation, hospitalization.
